

AbilityFirst Gourmet Festival Oct. 1

The 32nd Annual Gourmet Festival of Fall, featuring an array of delicious food and beverages provided by more than 20 restaurants, wineries and breweries, will be held on the grounds of a beautiful private estate in South Pasadena from 4 to 8 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 1. Proceeds will benefit AbilityFirst's programs in Pasadena for children and adults with disabilities: the Lawrence L. Frank Center and the Pasadena Work Center.

Established in 1926 as the Crippled Children's Society of Southern California, AbilityFirst is a leading non-profit organization providing a full range of services to children and adults with disabilities.

"With this scrumptious event for a vital cause, AbilityFirst is celebrating 80 years of looking beyond disabilities, focusing on capabilities and expanding possibilities," said AbilityFirst President Lori Gangemi.

The event will be held at the Davis Estate, located at 1315 Chelton Way in South Pasadena. Parking is available on the street.

Tickets are $75 per person ($50 is tax-deductible).
