

For Immediate Release

Contact: Sonia Ramirez

Marketing Manager

sramirez@abilityfirst.org 626-639-1745

Giving Back through Theatre and Music

Pasadena, Calif. – AbilityFirst, a non-profit organization has people that care and recognize the work and compassion that is offered through their trusted 87 years in providing programs and services for children and adults with disabilities. Giving back through theatre and music Greg Wood, music writer and Donna Scarantino, Director and President of Theatre Americana come together to build on their talents to produce Mary of the Avenue, a musical making her long-awaited stage-debut at The Stella Adler Theatre in Hollywood, CA.

Dates and Times: April 20-28 Saturdays, 8 p.m., Sundays, 2 p.m. Book and lyrics by Neil Scanlan AbilityFirst and will be receiving 15% of all proceeds to help continue their mission in helping special needs children and adults.

For ticket purchase: www.brownpapertickets.com

For Information: www.theatreamericana.com

About Ability First

AbilityFirst, formerly Crippled Children’s Society of Southern California, provides programs and services to help children and adults with disabilities reach their full potential. Through 24 locations across Southern California, they offer a broad range of employment, recreational and socialization programs as well as accessible residential housing complexes and an accessible camp, Camp Paivika, for both children and adults.

#