

AbilityFirst welcomes Michuan Fleming as its new Chief People Officer

Michuan Fleming brings over 18 years of experience in human resources and organizational development. With a strong background in aligning HR practices with strategic objectives, Michuan is dedicated to fostering an inclusive and supportive environment for both staff and participants.

Prior to joining Ability First, Michuan served as Chief Innovation Officer at Safe Place for Youth, where she led initiatives in talent management, safety & compliance, and employee engagement. Michuan holds a BA in HR from the University of Arizona and holds two HR certifications.

Passionate about empowering individuals with disabilities, Michuan is committed to advancing Ability First's mission by implementing innovative HR & Safety strategies that support the organization's growth and the well-being of its community.

I am eager to contribute to the mission and collaborate with the team to achieve new milestones.
